Card of Thanks.

The Herald is in receipt of the following which explains itself:

In behalf of myself and all the other ladies who went with me from Longview to assist you in your prohibition campaign, I want to say that we can't express in writing all we would be pleased to of our appreciation of the courtesies your good people showered upon us while in your city. While we are grieved over the results, we are assured that the next effort will be one of victory for the right, as now you have learned wherein lay your weaknesses, and we feel sure that no good woman in your town will remain at home while her sisters are endeavoring to assist in purifying the beautiful city of Palestine.

Again thanking all who were so good to us, and with prayer that you may yet rejoice as we do here in a clean town, I am

Very truly yours,

Mrs. J. M. HUFFINGTON,
President W. C. T. U.

Fight Will Be Bitter

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. An Old Gourd.

Mr. P. C. Cotten of Cayuga called on the Herald Saturday, and brought with him an old powder gourd, an heirloom. Mr. Cotten said the gourd was sent from Texas to Louisiana in 1859, as a present to Edward Johnson, a brother of Mr. Joe A. Johnson of this county. The owner died at Richmond, Va., when a Confederate soldier. This gourd with other effects of the dead soldier, were sent back home. It is in a good state of preservation, and is a highly valued relic of olden times.

The Best.

When a farmer buys a plough or reaper he wants the best; when any of us are sick and need a physician we want the best; if a business man wishes to employ a bookkeeper or stenographer he wants the best; so we see it is the "Best" of everything that is wanted. Do not make an exception to the rule when you attend a business college, attend the best—the Tyler College, Tyler, Texas.

They teach the famous Byrne Short-hand, the practical, actual business method of book-keeping and business training. Their graduates take the very best of positions everywhere.

Write for a free catalogue at once and make up your mind to get a practical education.
